March 21st – 24th, 2015 “Techno–Spiritual” Tour III - Ba’albek & Lebanon Extension

Open to Everyone!

Join the Khemit School as we uncover the many layers of “Site Transformation” at Ba’albek and other sites in Lebanon that were inhabited by many different civilizations over thousands of years.

Day 1: Saturday, March 21st
Arrival at the Beirut–Rafic Hariri International Airport. We will be welcomed by our Meet & Assist representative who will provide immediate transfer to the luxurious Warwick Palm Beach Hotel

“At the heart of one of the oldest city centres in the world, the four-star Warwick Palm Beach Hotel stands tall over the Mediterranean Sea as a testament to the many triumphs of Beirut. Situated in the coastal area of Ain-El Mreisseh with Mount Lebanon in background, guests enjoy lounging within deluxe guest rooms and suites filled with plush amenities or toasting ‘The Paris of the East’ from any of the hotel’s three restaurants. From the rooftop lounge, Beirut unfolds underneath; a short walk to colorful neighborhoods alive with vibrant bars, shopping, restaurants and too many historic attractions to count.”

Day 2 – Sunday, March 22: After Breakfast, our full day tour begins with the famous and fabulous sceneries at the Jeita Grottos, one of the “New Seven Wonders of Nature”. Located north of Beirut, the Jeita Grotto is a system of two separate, but interconnected, karstic limestone caves spanning an overall length of nearly 9 kilometers (5.6 mi). The Jeita Grotto, with its many huge chambers, houses the world's largest known stalactite and is said to have been inhabited in pre-historic times.
Our day continues with an exploration of the beautiful Phoenician city of Byblos. Byblos is a true microcosm of the civilizations that have populated Lebanon over the centuries. Arguably believed to be one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world, the modern port city of Byblos is built upon multiple layers of ruins, dating back to as early as the Stone Age and extending to the more recent Ottoman days.

After enjoying lunch together we will continue on to Harissa, a small mountain village and sacred pilgrimage site. We will take a nine minute journey on a Gondola lift up to this delightful village with an amazing panoramic view of Jounieh Bay. Overnight Warwick Palm Beach Hotel, Beirut (B,L)

Day 3 – Saturday, March 23  After Breakfast, we will embark on our visit to Ba’albeck and the Temples of Jupiter, Bacchus and Venus and the Stone of the Pregnant Woman. Known as Heliopolis, or the “City of the Sun” during Greco-Roman times, the site of Ba’albek shows much evidence that a more advanced civilization must have built and inhabited the area thousands of years earlier.

Archeologist and Khemitologist, Abd’el Hakim Awyan, maintained that very ancient Khemit (Egypt) extended well beyond its current borders and included Lebanon and the area known as Ba’albek. We will see the six remaining Corinthian columns of the Jupiter Temple, made from rose granite that was transported all the way from the Aswan Quarries in Egypt. Eight more were disassembled and shipped to Constantinople under Justinian’s orders circa 532-537 CE, for his basilica of Hagia Sophia.
Next we’re off to visit Anjar, formerly known as Gerrha, a stronghold built by Umayyad Caliph Al-Walid ibn Abdel Malek in the 8th century. The actual construction was undertaken by laborers from Anatolia and Coptic artisans from Egypt. After being abandoned in later years, Anjar was resettled in 1939 with several thousand Armenian refugees from the Musa Dagh area of Turkey.

After lunch we leave for an exploration of the caves at Ksara, known as Château Ksara, and a Wine Tasting. Lebanese wine tradition dates back to 5,000 years, when the ancient inhabitants of Lebanon, the Phoenicians, first began tending vineyards. The Phoenicians exported wine to ancient Egypt, Rome, Greece and Carthage; introducing many to viticulture and oenology. Lebanon is also said to be the place where Jesus performed the miracle of turning water into wine. Overnight Warwick Palm Beach Hotel, Beirut (B,L)

Day 4 – Monday, March 24 Following Breakfast, we will visit fascinating mosques and churches built during the French mandate and restored starting 1993-- along with the National Museum in Beirut with its extensive collection of artifacts ranging in date from prehistoric times to the medieval Mamluk period.
Afterwards, we will return to our hotel to prepare for our transfer to the airport and return to Cairo. (B.L)
